

I'm writing to support the continuation of KLOVE radio as we have listened and been encouraged to KLOVE for a number of years. If displaced, not only will my family, but a number of friends will be greatly disappointed. We all raise young children and the value and positive effect for family broadcasting can only be measured in the quality of lives that will unfold in the years to come.